

PISM | POLSKI INSTYTUT SPRAW MIĘDZYNARODOWYCH
THE POLISH INSTITUTE OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

Y2Y Youth-to-Youth in Diplomacy: Poles and Egyptians talk about transition and revolution

Nov. 20, 2012, al-Ahram Center for Political and Strategic Studies ACPSS, Cairo

10 am :10:10 : Opening

Diaa Rashwan, ACPSS Director

Dr Muhamed Kadry Said, Head of Security and Strategic Studies Unit, ACPSS

10:10- 12:00 pm : "We, the children of transition"

Patrycja Sasnal, Head of the Middle East and North Africa Project at the Polish Institute of International Affairs, Poland

Paulina Wilk, journalist and writer, Poland.

12:12:30 Discussion

12:30-1:00 Coffee Break

1:00- 2:00 : "An Assessment of similarities and differences between Egyptian and Polish revolutions"?

Eman Ragab, Researcher, al-Ahram Center for Political and Strategic Studies.

Omar Moneib, Diplomat, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Egypt

Nour Abdel Maksood, Diplomat, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Egypt.

Mohamed Ezz Al-Arab, Researcher, al-Ahram Center for Political and Strategic Studies.

Mohamed Abbas, Researcher, al-Ahram Center for Political and Strategic Studies.

(15 ms each)

2:00-3:00 : Discussion and closing.

A project co-financed by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Poland within the framework of the 2012 cooperation programme in public diplomacy.

Rzeczpospolita Polska
Ministerstwo
Spraw Zagranicznych

Ministry of Foreign Affairs
Republic of Poland