

Old Friends, New Leaders:
600 years of Polish - Turkish
Diplomatic Relations

Oxford University
Turkish Society

Programme on
Modern Poland

Poland and Turkey: 600 Years of Diplomatic Relations

A conversation with Marcin Zaborowski and Umut Korkut

Monday, 24th November 2014, 15.00 – 16.30 (coffee at 14.15)
Seminar Room, European Studies Centre, 70 Woodstock Road
Conversation moderated by Maria Wilczek

From the footprints of Henryk Sienkiewicz and Adam Mickiewicz in Istanbul, to Remziye Hisar studying under the eye of Maria Skłodowska-Curie.

From the Homer on Poznań's city hall, to Chopin's march played at Atatürk's funeral.

From the Polish passport in the back pocket of the great poet Nazım Hikmet, to the Turkish passports in the pockets of Poles living in modern-day Polonezköy.

This year we celebrate 600 years of Polish-Turkish diplomatic relations.

