

SUBJECT INDEX

Index entries are grouped in two categories and arranged alphabetically in each.

The first category (in bold) encompasses states (including colonies, dominions and regions), organisations and institutions as well as the most important events. This category includes, among others, the following entries: Act on Revocation of Citizenship (of 31 March 1938), Agudat Israel, Bund, concentration and extermination camps, Council for the Rescue of the Jewish Population in Poland, Council to Aid Jews to the Government Delegate for Poland, desertions of Jewish soldiers from the Polish army, General Government, ghettos, internment camps, Jewish Agency for Palestine, Joint (American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee), Kar-ski's mission, Katyn massacre, media, National Council, passports of South American countries, Polish Armed Forces in the West, Polish Army in France and Polish Army in the USSR (Polish Army in the East), Polish Red Cross, Warsaw Ghetto Uprising (1943), Warsaw Uprising (1944) and World Jewish Congress.

If a document is devoted entirely to one subject (e.g. Karski's mission), the document number is mentioned in the index (in bold).

In the second category, you will find a list of press titles, internment camps, ghettos, concentration and extermination camps, as well as references to related entries.
